SPIRIT DISPLAYED

Spirit week brought a variety of activities. Activities began Tuesday, October 10, with chain link sales. This was followed by hall decorating Wednesday with each class decorating its appropriate floor. Thursday, switch day, students dressed in clothing of the opposite sex. During the pep assembly Friday, representatives from each class participated in an ice cream eating contest. On Friday evening the Tiger football team played arch rival Zanesville, losing 17-14. Half-time activities included crowning of Homecoming Queen, Denise McDaniel. The week's activities concluded Saturday, October 14, with the Homecoming Dance, "Harvest Moon," held at the Betsy Mills Club.

DURING HOMECOMING

A. Queen candidates were (sitting) Krickett Bucey and Lory Roby; (kneeling) Brenda Malone; (standing) Denise McDaniel and Lauren Yeager.

B. Seniors won the float competition with Devil-i-tion Derby as their slogan.

C. Denise McDaniel, escorted by Dan Dutton, admires her roses as Lauren Yeager, Sam Miracle, Krickett Bucey and Tom Weihl try to stay dry.

D. Homecoming festivities concluded with the Homecoming dance "Harvest Moon."

SENIOR CLASS PRESENTS

The roaring twenties provided the setting for the senior class presentation of Gentlemen Prefer Blondes. The play opened with two southern girls, Lorelei Lee and Dorothy, packing for an educational trip to France. Of course education was not their main purpose for going. Fine gentlemen were first in their minds. While on board the passenger liner Majestic, Lorelei realized she had left all the traveler's checks at home. This was the beginning of their money worries. During the play they borrowed money and even pawned a watch and an engagement ring. But when everything looked hopeless, Lorelei's father arrived in France and paid all the bills.

In spite of all the difficulties the girls had had on their own, they both found fine gentlemen and became engaged.

Lorelei Lee (Kathy Hewitt) cried over men while Dorothy (Krickett Bucey) worried about money.

Mrs. Spoffard (Denise McDaniel), Mrs. Von Osborne (Tracy Farley), Henry Spoffard (John Goettge), Mrs. Von Austin (Alison Mills), and Margaret (Barb Russel) relaxed on board the Majestic.

Dancers Christie Hackathorn, Jan Dickson, Lauren Yeager, Irene Innes, and Susan Bergen performed the cancan.

GENTLEMEN PREFER BLONDES

After meeting on the Majestic, Henry and Lorelei continued their romance in Paris.

Dorothy and Lorelei eagerly anticipated their arrival in Paris.

French maid (Cristie Hackathorn) helped conduct the search for the missing diamond ring.

JUNIOR CLASS PERFORMS

Bill Thompson, accompanied by Mark Russi at the piano, portrayed a deer hunter.

Jeannie Mulato, Vicki Grasley, and Theresa Malone pantomimed three clowns.

The Junior Class Talent Show was patterned after the Broadway hit "A Chorus Line." The entire production focused on a Broadway director and the different acts that auditioned for his show. Auditions ranged from song and dance routines and comedy skits to magic and juggling skills.

Beth North, accompanied by Marvin Becker on the piano and Rick Broker on guitar, sang "Annie's Song."

"CHORUS LINE"

Karen Brown was one of several teeny boppers in the 50's dance.

Eric Krivchenia portrayed "Samuri Super Jock."

Julie Huck and her tricycle presented "Greased Lightening."

Theresa Augenstein and Eric Krivchenia sang "Cat's in the Cradle."

JUNIOR CLASS HOSTS

Prom queen and king candidates were as follows: Becky Ross, Karen Bergen, Peggy Pickering, Kelly Lyon, Susie Burkhart, Dave Lennington, Terry Wallis, Jim Mills, Bill McCracken, and Tom Stafford.

Upon arriving, guests signed in at the door.

Throughout the evening couples danced to the music of "Roadwork."

"A NIGHT IN WHITE SATIN"

Hostesses Shelly Carver, Debbie McCormick, Kelly Carver, and Carolyn Heslop served refreshments throughout the night.

The Junior-Senior Prom was held April 28 in Sutton Gymnasium. The theme "A Night in White Satin" was carried out with decorations of pastel streamers, white fluffy clouds, silver stars, moons, and flickering candles. In the light of a glittering mirror ball, couples danced to a wide variety of music provided by "Roadwork."

During intermission Karen Bergen and Bill McCracken were crowned prom queen and king.

The two teams that defeated the Tigers, Caldwell and Parkersburg, both went on to place in the top three in their respective states.

Although the Tigers ran well as a team, they lacked speed enough to place high in important races, such as the C.O.L., Marietta Invitational, and the Rio Grande Invitational.

Assistant Coach Gregory went over strategy with members of the varsity team.

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

With seven seniors and one junior, the varsity volleyball team just didn't have the season that they had hoped for. Their four victories came over Warren, Logan twice, and Lancaster. Although the Tigerettes played well at sectionals, they lost two out of three games to Miami Trace and were eliminated from tournament play.

They were defeated by Lancaster, Upper Arlington, Cambridge, and Athens, In the C.O.L. tournment held at the Marietta Country Club the golfers finished second. In sectional competition held at Lancaster, the Tigers finished third. This ended chances of any additional post-season play.

Gary Fitzgerald attempted to chip into the hole from the edge of the green.

Dan Dutton hit his ball out of the rough and onto fairway.

VARSITY HAS BEST RECORD

The Tiger varsity began the season with five straight victories: a 38-14 defeat of Athens, two consecutive shutouts over Parkersburg South and Parkersburg Big Reds, a 34-13 win over Bellaire, and a 26-14 defeat of Cambridge.

In the next two games, however, the Tigers were defeated by Zanesville, 17-14, and Upper Arlington, 28-7. They concluded the season on a winning note with victories over Grove City, 14-13, and Lancaster, 27-7.

SUCCESSFUL SEASON

The Tiger Junior Varsity football team opened its season on a winning note by shutting out both Parkersburg South and Logan with scores of 32-0 and 13-0, respectively. After a loss to Parkersburg Little Reds, the Tiger kittens came back with wins against Cambridge and Lancaster and battled to a scoreless tie with Zanesville.

A barely missed first down was a costly factor in their loss to Upper Arlington and a wet, sloppy field paved the way for a second scoreless tie, this time with Newark.

To culminate the season, the Tiger junior varsity topped Grove City for a final season record of 5-2-2.

Mark Gerber (No. 56) and Jim Green (No. 14) scrambled to recover a fumble.

VARSITY WINS COL

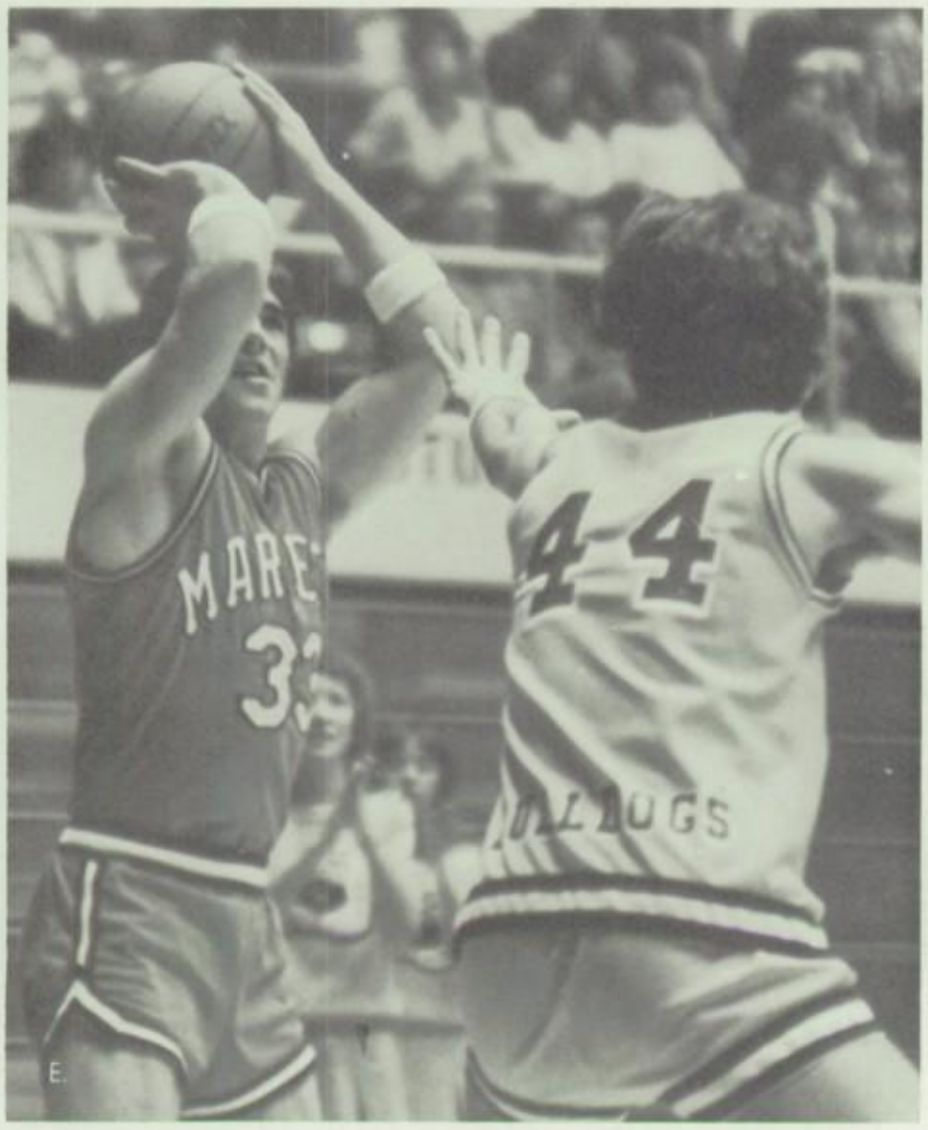
C.

D.



For the first time in sixteen years, the Tigers won the COL championship in basketball.

The Tigers opened the season with six straight victories before falling to Grove City 80-79. After reeling off four more COL wins, the Tigers faced Grove City in Sutton Gymnasium. Before a capacity crowd Marietta avenged a former loss and clenched at least a tie for the COL title by defeating the Greyhounds 68-58. One week later, this time before an overflowing crowd, the Tigers gained sole possession of the COL by defeating Zansville 86-74.

Post-season play seemed somewhat anticlimatic after that. After drawing a by, the Tigers went on to win the sectional title by defeating Athens 65-61. In the district, however, the Tiger season ended as New Philadelphia won 71-70. Overall the Tigers compiled a successful season of 17 wins and 3 losses.

The grapplers entered three tournaments — COL, sectional, and district — where they placed 2nd, 5th and 7th respectively. Individual awards went to Doug Rowland, most pins; Jim Saeger, most takedowns; and Steve Schoonover, most escapes and most valuable wrestler.

UNDISPUTED COL TITLE

The Tiger baseball team captured its first undisputed COL championship since 1967. They then went on to win the sectional, district, and regional championships to qualify for a state tourney berth. However, they lost 3-1 to Oregon Clay in the first game of the semifinals.

The JV's overall record was 10-13 with a 6-9 record in the COL.

B. Leslie Pape neared the finish line on her way to winning the 100 yard dash.

C. Sharon Shepard and Mary Stoodt embraced after breaking the school record in the 880 relay.

27-10 RECORD

Although the girls' track team did not have a lot of depth, they did have some people who were consistent enough to win against stiff competition, posting a 27-10 record in the regular season.

Part of the reason for the success was in the relays. The 880 relay did no worse than second place until it got to the districts. The medley relay consistently finished in the top three in almost all of its races.

In the COL the girls finished third to Upper Arlington and Newark respectively.

A. Leading most of the race in a meet against Cambridge and Zanesville, 880 runner Leigh Taylor was passed in the final lap by a Zanesville runner.

B. Mary Stoodt handed the baton to Sharon Shepard during the 880 relay.

TRACK TEAM

SHOWS POTENTIAL

Although the track team suffered from a lack of experience with most of the team consisting of sophomores, they did show definite signs of becoming a strong team in future seasons.

The young team lacked the depth to do well in meets, but did do well in certain events. In the shot put sophomore Scott Barrows missed breaking the school record by a mere 1/2 inch, throwing the shot 50'5".

In the high jump Jeff Stafford cleared 6'6 1/2" inches to break the old school record by more than an inch.

D. Marie Vargo reflected on the race after the girls won the Harmar Boat Club Regatta.

E. The girls led the whole race, winning the Governor's Cup in Charleston.

AT NATIONALS

Enjoying the best season in the team's history, the Girls' crew finished their regular season 10-0, then competed in the nationals in Delaware.

This was the first time a M.S.H.S. girls' crew had ever competed in the nationals. They rowed to a 6th place finish in the regatta.

In other races the girls won the Governor's Cup, the Harmar Boat Club Regatta, and the Ohio Valley Schoolboy Regatta. In the Brooke Cup in Wellsburg, W.Va., the girls failed to get to the starting line in time and were disqualified from their race; however they rowed in the boys' varsity race and came within two seconds of defeating Brooke's varsity boys.

CREW FINISHES

A. Since dirt slows a shell, it had to be washed before each race.

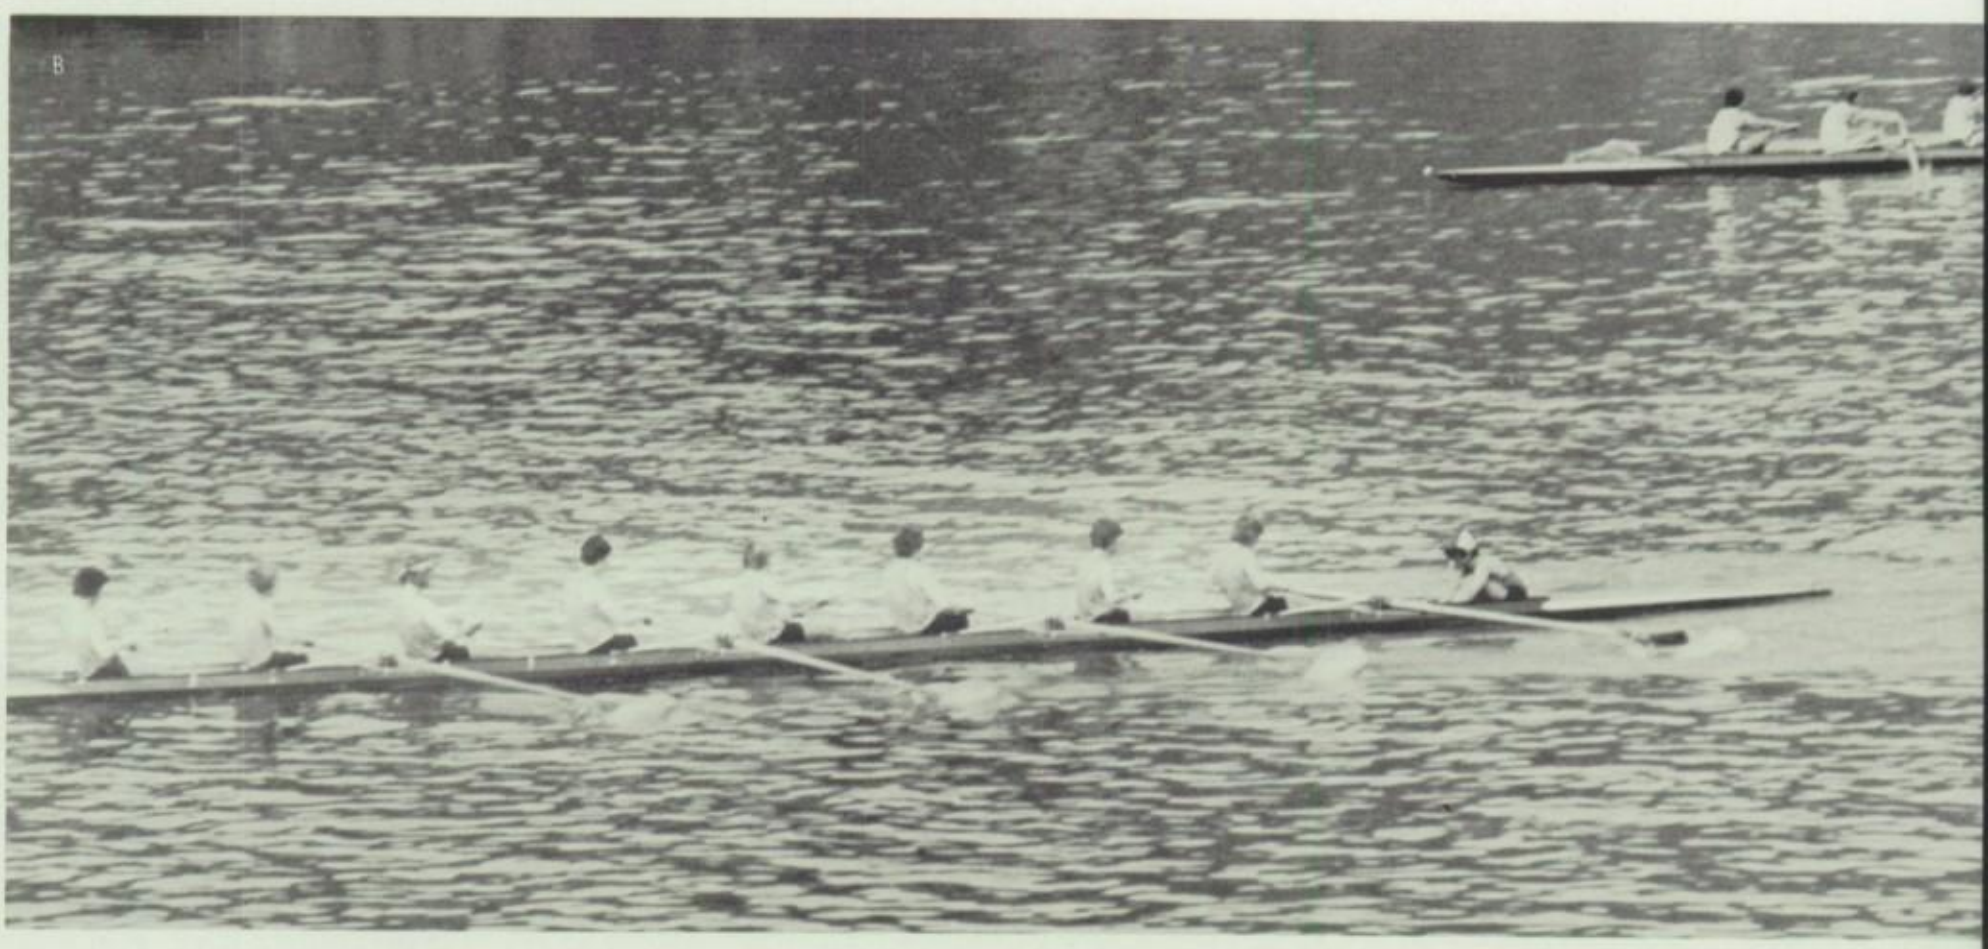
B. After winning the Harmar Boat Club Regatta, the varsity celebrated by slapping the water.

C. Rejoicing was in order as the varsity won the Ohio Valley Schoolboy regatta for the 5th straight year.

REGULAR SEASON 18-0

The varsity also won the Governor's Cup in Charlestown while the JV's placed second.

Only when they competed at the nationals in Middletown, Delaware, did the varsity meet with defeat. After failing to qualify for the actual final, they rowed in the petites, coming in third to take 9th place in the nation. The JV's finished 5th in the petite finals for 11th place in the nation.



A. The JV's prepared to leave the dock at the nationals.

SENIORS

Kevin Kelly served as Master of Ceremonies for the assembly.

Barb Russell sang "Piano Man."

John Goettge sang "Mr. Bojangles" and played the guitar.

Seniors reminisced on their twelve school years at the memories assembly. They performed acts from their Junior Class Talent Show, talked about junior high days, and past high school activities. It was a chance for seniors as a class to take one last look at their school days.

REMINISCE

Kathy Hewitt and Margy Shamel did their versions of the "munchkins."

Steve Curtis played a drum solo and received a standing ovation.

Kathy Hewitt and Jane Kelso were two members of the "Sexy Six."

Dave Beardsley, Dave Neely, Jill Lewis, Lou-Ann Bett, Brian Tymchak, Jane Kelso, Betsy Blair, and Leslie Pape were among those who received honors.

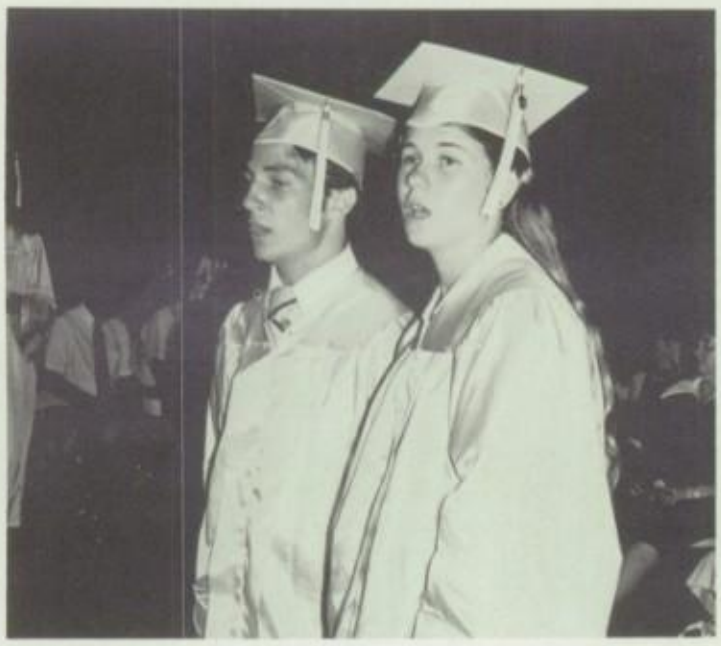
Josh Rosenblum presented Jill Lewis with a white rose.

Kim White presented the invocation.

Sam Flannery received his diploma from Roger Patterson, vice president of the school board.

MSHS GRADUATES 428

Marching to the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" Gene Hollins and Carl Hubl entered Ban Johnson Field House.



Senior class president Pat Hukill and vice president Jan Dickson sang the class song.

Due to rain, the graduation ceremony was held inside the Ban Johnson Field House rather than Don Drumm Field. Superintendent, Lantz Hinson explained the meaning of independence to the graduates. Senior class president Pat Hukill thanked and congratulated the parents of the graduates. This year the honor of valedictorian went to Dale Holdren, Kathryn Murtha, and Kim White. The salutatorian was Elliot Anderson. In spite of the rain and excessive heat the class of '79 completed the graduation exercises thus ending 12 years of schooling.

Margy Shamel and Irene Innes stood before a crowd of 3,000 to receive honors.

Steve Haessly, Priscilla Hanson and Kim Harris were among the graduating juniors.

RAIN FALLS ON CRUISE

After coming in from the rain, Stacy Bike with date Scott Kidd rearranged the flower in her hair.

Pete Cammon and Carol Benson posed for the camera while Mr. Berentz greeted guests.

Bernie Brown, Robin Ross, Becky Dernburger, and Tony Satterfield waited to board the Chaperone.

On board the Chaperone, seniors and their dates danced to the music of "Insured Sound." Most spent their cruise below deck where it was dry, but a few brave souls with umbrellas and other rain gear ventured to the top deck.

SENIORS RECEIVE RECOGNITION

Seniors marched into the auditorium to the music of "Pomp and Circumstance."

Kim White received the Marie Adamson Award.

The first recipient of the Ed McMahan Award was Joe Wegmiller.

Many seniors received honors in the areas of academics, athletics, and leadership at the recognition assembly. Some outstanding award recipients were Kim White, American Cyanamid, Walter Schweikert, Washington Electric Coop.; Elliot Anderson, Linda Israel Memorial, Regents Scholarship; Bernie Brown, Dick Siley Award; Jay Ecihorn and Margy Shamel, Alumni Award; Gene Hollins, ROTC Scholarship.

A Note to the Seniors

The world is full of wondrous things,
People, places, and happenings.
Your high school days are just the beginning of your marvelous journey through life.
You are given each day to spend as you will . . .
What you do with each day is important because
You are exchanging a day of your life for it.
Make each day you spend worth
Whatever you trade it for.

Dave,

To a really good friend I've known for a long time. Thanks for all the "rides". Never forget the Senior class play + ~~those~~, Lucille. Never forget Heather + how you goose her during the announcements. Maybe someday I'll see your name in the paper, not as a convict or a monkey in the zoo, but for being a great performer. Never forget Picnic Hams + your secret ~~rendezvous~~ hide-aways under the building. And all those hot luscious kisses from her + her gorgeous PINK-LIPS. Remember, ~~you could~~ your next meal could be a feast of PICNIC HAMS. Happy eating!!
